Joint Bargaining Update

9.20.2022

The Joint Bargaining Committee and the Company met today to discuss the Union and Company proposals for Pension and LTD. Both sides explained their proposals in detail. The Company informed the Joint Bargaining committee they are not interested in any of the proposals to improve the pension plan and would not provide a counterproposal. The Joint Bargaining Committee is still reviewing the Company's proposals. We are scheduled to meet again on Friday the 23rd. Following the conclusion of the negotiation session the Company presented the Joint Bargaining with a draft of a Tobacco Free Policy. The Joint Bargaining committee and the Company exchanged proposals and will continue to discuss on Friday.
