Joint Bargaining Update

11.21.22

The Joint Bargaining Committee and the Company met today for negotiations. The Union reiterated its proposals for pension improvements. The two sides discussed the proposals in detail and the Company took the Union proposals for further discussion and costing. No discussion on any medical proposals occurred due to the Company currently working on the Union's medical proposals. The Company is expected to have responses or counterproposals prepared for the November 29th meeting.
